

Pastoral Council Meeting

November 11, 2015

The meeting was called to order by President John Schlimme with the opening prayer.

Those attending were Father Dan, John Schlimme, Jim Thole, Corey Huegen, Sue Lohmann, Connie Bariszewski, and Nancy Huelsmann.

The council approved last month's minutes. (Motion by Corey Huegen second by Jim Thole, motion carried)

The council received the list of nominees for the December election of the next Pastoral council. The council divided the list as to who they would contact to notify the people of the nomination and to see if they would accept. Council members were to notify Nancy Huelsmann of the results for picture taking purposes.

The "Blue Print" for future events from Corey Huegen was tabled until next meeting.

The council established a timeline for the Unsung Heroes program. The council will seek nominations in the bulletins from June- August and vote on the nominees at the September meeting, so the awards may be presented each October.

It was also mentioned that council create a Monthly Calendar of events for each month to help eliminate things falling through the cracks.

The council tabled talk of the formation of a Vocations committee until next month.

The council discussed finding a Chairperson to coordinate events for our Sesquicentennial year.

Father Dan informed the council that an anonymous donor is paying to have a print of OUR LADY of GUADELUPE placed in church. No date has been established as of yet for its display.

Jim Thole reported that the COPP had a great turnout of area youth and they are working on a project to have a youth mass and gathering over the 2016 Easter weekend.

A motion to Adjourn was made by Connie Barcizewski with a second by Corey Huegen, motion passed.
