

Pastoral Council meeting 12-9-2015

The meeting was called to order by Vice-President, Jim Thole with the opening prayer lead by Father Dan.

Those attending were Father Dan, Terry Richards, Jim Thole, Corey Huegen, Sue Lohman, and Nancy Huelsmann.

The council was informed that there are six parishioners that have accepted nominations for Pastoral Council voting. They are Irma Deimeke, Lori Kampwerth, Kay Peters, Mike Ratermann, Brad Richter, and Carol Voyles. Nancy Huelsmann will gather pictures of the candidates. The election will take place the weekend of January 9th and 10th with the ballots being counted after 9:30 mass on the January 10th. The council will then inform the winners of the election.

The "Blue Print" for future events from Corey Huegen was tabled until next meeting. Corey asked if he could get a copy on the mission outline as a guide. Father Dan said he could get Corey a copy.

Corey Huegen also took on the task of making a yearly calendar of events for the council.

Father Dan indicated he is waiting until after the holidays to seek a Vocations Ministry person.

The council discussed finding a team leader to coordinate events for our Sesquicentennial year.

Father Dan informed the council that the print of OUR LADY of GUADELUPE has been delivered and is being stretched and is waiting for a frame. The unveil date has not been determined yet.

Jim Thole reported there is nothing new on the COPP at this time.

The next meeting has been pushed back a week until January 20, 2016 at 7:30pm.

A motion to Adjourn was made by Terry Richard with a second by Corey Huegen, motion passed.
